MILDRED HOLLAND

In "The Triumph of An Empress" Comes to the Traders Grand Opera House Wednesday Evening, Dec. 28.

The announcement of the appearance at the Traders Grand opera house on Wednesday, Dec. 28, of Mildred Holland, as Catherine, the Great, in "The Triumph of An Empress," will be particularly welcome to the hundreds of friends of that accomplished actress in this city, as well as to those theatre goers who appreciate serious effort in the drama.

The subject of the theme of "The Triumph of An Empress" is an exalted one, and while Miss Holland does not actually follow recorded facts of history in her portrayal of the great Empress, she shows her higher and better characteristics, her devotion to the duties of state and her great material love. That she can adequately do this is evidenced by the following extract from the Boston Record:

"A delighted audience at the Majestic last evening witnessed Mildred Holland's interpretation of Theodore Kramer's 'The Triumph of An Empress,' a drama portraying the indulgence of that eccentric sovereign, Catherine, who swayed Russia a century and a half ago. Mr. Kramer has enveloped his drama in an atmosphere thoroughly Russian and illustrated with subtlety and finesse, the characteristics of the period in which it is laid. Miss Holland's conception of Catherine was a faithful delineation of that imperious monarch as outlined in the pen pictures of Segur, Ligny, Rousseau, Voltaire and others, weaving through the strong wool of her intolerance a tender yet powerful warp of mercy and womanliness."

THE PROTECTION
afforded by an insurance policy in a good company is worth much more than its cost. The insured man saves enough in freedom from worry to more than pay for the policy. The joy of Christmas will not be marred for the insured man by the fear of what might happen.

MAKE YOURSELF
equally care free. Tell me the kind of policy you want and for how much and I will do the rest. All you have to do is to pay the small premium which you will hardly miss. It's not worth while to worry when you can get insured so easily.

An Epidemic for Puckered Lips.
There has been an epidemic in the wake of Miss Bob White which resembles the deadly work of the kissing-bug. But the Hobbesque insect is not to blame for the present malady, but the original composer, named Willard Spencer, whose brilliant and catchy music in Miss Bob White has set more lips a pucker than any other opera recorded to date. It is booked for appearance at the Traders Grand opera house soon.
